Not illustrated. 1893 edition. Excerpt: ...at the end. MR. A. M. Ntcut.so. is engaged in collecting all sorts of material valuable to the naturalist or collector, at Orlando, Fla. He is in a favorable locality, and has a long experience as a collector and taxidermISI. THE NIDIOLOGIST is the friend of the Ornithologist. taxidermist, and collector. It exposes enemies to their science and to their trade. It spares no labor or expense to present illustrations which give pleasure and instruction. It should be, and is, therefore, well supported. DR. SHIL-ELDT has just succeeded in taking excellent photographs of living specimens of the rare Aikens Screech Owl, also of the Western Red-tailed Hawk. They will shortly appear as illustrations in this journal. It is safe to say that in Vol. III the Nmto1.oc.is-r will surpass its record. Special and new features, of unusual interest to the Ornithologist, are now being prepared for early publication. EDITOR N1DIoLootsr.--Dear Sir: I notice in the NIDIOLOGIST for August, page 170, that the Pallid Horned Lark (Olomri: a/prlrileurulavna) is mentioned as breeding in Colorado. This form does not occur in Colorado during the breeding season all summer birds being referable to the race Ofomris al/e.r/ris arcentsni:0ln. This oversight in identification should be corrected. Yours very respectfully, Washington, D. C. HARRY C. OBERHOLSER. VoL. III. No. 2. NEW YORK. OCTOBER, 1895. $1.00 PER YEAR. Photographs of Living Birds, are now in the United States National Museum collection, and resemble those of the other AIKENVS OWL AND WOOD PEWEE members of this genus in shape and color and NUMBER of years ago I published in average slightly larger than the eggs of the Forest and Stream an account of my Mexican Screech Owl, measurin
